

COMMUNITY

The Community category centers around building strong local relationships, supporting one another, and creating resilient networks where people work together for the good of families, neighbors, and future generations.

These skills reflect service, cooperation, generosity, leadership, responsibility, and the understanding that true resilience has always been built together.

- Neighbor Helping Neighbor
- Mutual Aid
- Meal Trains
- Volunteerism
- Community Outreach
- Supporting Local Farmers
- Supporting Local Makers
- Shopping Local
- Community Preparedness
- Emergency Response Networks
- Community Resource Sharing
- Tool Libraries
- Cooperative Buying
- Cooperative Gardening
- Trade & Barter Systems
- Local Economy Building
- Community Leadership
- Civic Engagement
- Small Town Revitalization
- Main Street Support
- Mentorship Relationships

- Youth Mentorship
- Elder Care Support
- Childcare Cooperation
- Transportation Assistance
- Food Pantry Support
- Community Fundraising
- Crisis Response Support
- Homestead Networks
- Church & Faith-Based Support
- Hospitality & Welcoming
- Inclusion & Relationship Building
- Conflict Resolution
- Encouragement & Accountability
- Teamwork
- Collaborative Problem Solving
- Sharing Knowledge Freely
- Community Organizing
- Local Event Coordination
- Supporting Small Businesses
- Building Local Partnerships
- Creating Safe Community Spaces
- Intergenerational Connection
- Family Support Systems
- Homeschool Co-ops
- Community Child Education
- Resource Stewardship
- Community Gardens
- Neighborhood Communication Networks
- Checking on Elderly Neighbors
- Disaster Preparedness Cooperation
- Local Skill Directories
- Community Resilience Planning
- Encouraging Self-Reliance Together
- Building Trust Between Neighbors
- Restoring Community Traditions
- Creating Places of Belonging
- Strengthening Family & Community Bonds

CORE IDEA:

To build community is to create networks of trust, support, and shared responsibility that help people thrive together through every season of life.